Your insights into your son or daughter's personality, temperament, needs and interests will be most helpful in assisting us in placing him or her in an exchange which encourages growth learning and sharing. Your comments will also serve as an introduction to the exchange committee in Esslingen. We ask that you, as frankly and fully as possible, write about your son or daughter. You may use both sides of this sheet. Please consider the following:

- Overall personality
- Relationship with you and each member of your immediate family
- Relationship with others (peers, adults, relatives, the elderly, and young children)
- Reactions to disagreements and discipline
- Reactions to being away from the family in the past
- Factors which should be considered in placing your child, including dietary restrictions, physical or health limitations, and other pertinent medical information.

Please provide the responses to this section in a typed format and attach to the application.
